

Positively MAD Online Provision

The Watch.Read.Do Series: This high-impact and engaging online resource offers practical tasks, video explanations, live workshops, audio narration and in-depth notes.

Description

Positively MAD are excited to offer a comprehensive series of online provision, consisting of:

1. Online Workshops - LIVE

Delivery of all of our standard workshops via MS Teams/Google Meets/Zoom (or any other online platform of your choice)

2. The Watch.Read.Do Series (bilingual Welsh version available)

This high-impact and engaging online resource for students, parents and teachers offers practical tasks, video explanations, audio narration and in-depth notes.

3. The Blended Learner - LIVE

A KS3 or KS4 technique workshop for students and their parents focusing on creating a supportive home learning environment – choose from 3 time slots on any evening of your choice.

Aims

Our comprehensive 3 step Online Provision offering aims:

To compliment the online provision which schools are already providing

To provide students with the necessary drive, attitude and confidence to work from home

To encourage students to use their time wisely and think forward

To increase resilience

To improve metacognition

To get parents involved in home learning

Benefits

1. Online Workshops – LIVE

Live workshops so engaging and interactive, it's like the presenter is really there!

Show students a different face, to motivate them to engage with their learning

Flexible delivery options available

2. The Watch.Read.Do Series

(bilingual Welsh version available)

Useful as a standalone product or sustainable add-on to our live workshops

Increases mastery and boosts metacognition

Raises standards of learning, aspirations and resilience

3. The Blended Learner - LIVE

Encourages parental support and understanding

Improves attitudes to learning

Improves motivation and mindset

Results

This online provision will leave students feeling empowered with study techniques, revision and motivation tips. Students will learn the importance of positive thoughts and be prepared to commit to their learning, understanding how to plan forward without feeling too much pressure and stress to focus on the future.
